

Kids Struck While Trick-or-Treating Makes Fright Night Real

This time of year, kids look forward to staying up late, dressing up in costumes, and going door-to-door for tricks and treats. But Halloween can be a frightening time for parents—especially if they send their little ones out to trick-or-treat alone. Twice as many children are struck and killed by cars on Halloween than on any other night of the year, largely because of the decreased visibility and mobility of costumes. We offer lifesaving tips for parents on keeping kids safe from cars on Halloween, as well as some tips for drivers who will be on the roads on Halloween night.

What to Do If Your Home Suffers Flood Damage in October Storms

The rainy season is just around the corner, placing thousands of Texans at risk of severe flood damage to their homes. Unfortunately, many Texas flood damage insurance claims are denied simply because homeowners destroyed evidence or did not take the proper steps to document their losses. We explain what residents should do before moving back into a flood-damaged home, when to call your insurance company to begin your claim, and how to preserve the evidence in your claim to ensure that all of your property is covered by your policy. Don't wait until your home has been damaged to learn how to protect your rights!

Chemotherapy Drug Taxotere Linked to Permanent Hair Loss

Every day, women across the nation must undergo harsh chemotherapy treatments and suffer the grueling side effects in order to overcome breast cancer. But many of these women are now saying that some chemotherapy side effects continued for months or even years after the completion of treatment—and that the drug manufacturer never warned them about this possibility. The commonly used chemotherapy agent Taxotere causes hair loss that may be permanent, forcing cancer survivors to live with the daily reminder of their illness. Get the facts on this dangerous medication.

Improved Truck Underride Guards Could Prevent Numerous Deaths Every Year

Semi-trucks pose a variety of dangers to motorists on America's highways every year. One of these dangers is the risk of a passenger car sliding under the truck's trailer due to missing or inadequate truck underride guards. Learn more about why this happens, the devastating and deadly injuries that can result, and what changes may be in store to protect motorists from this type of accident.

Wayne Wright LLP

National Headquarters | 5707 W Interstate 10 | San Antonio, TX 78201

Click here to unsubscribe