

Liability and Legal Problems in Delivery Van Accidents

The ease of buying online has caused a flood of delivery vehicles onto U.S. roads, increasing the rate of delivery van accidents. Collisions caused by tight deadlines or improper loading not only severely damage passenger cars, they also pose unique legal challenges. Major commercial carriers such as FedEx and UPS have teams of lawyers at the ready to fight off claims, while an accident with a U.S. Postal Service driver involves suing a federal agency.

Just Drive During National Distracted Driving Awareness Month

Thousands of people are killed every year in crashes involving texting, programming a GPS, and other forms of distracted driving. The National Safety Council has designated April as National Distracted Driving Awareness Month, giving drivers a chance to brush up on Texas texting and driving laws, make a pledge to their families to will avoid distractions, and involve themselves in the Just Drive program.

Bayer Takes Essure Implant From Every Market Except United States

The Essure female sterilization implant will no longer be available outside the United States, Bayer has recently announced. The manufacturer claims that the decision to discontinue all Essure sales and marketing in other countries was made for commercial reasons, and is unrelated to claims of severe side effects of the Essure implant. A statement from Bayer cited an international “decline in demand” for the implant, but made no mention of the thousands of lawsuits still pending in relation to the device.

Lawsuit Seeks Justice for Pain and Complications of Ethicon Hernia Mesh

A patient who suffered multiple severe infections and surgeries is suing major hernia mesh manufacturer Ethicon for gross negligence. Daniel Ryder, one of thousands of victims to be affected by the dangers of hernia mesh, has filed a lawsuit alleging flawed design and failure to warn patients of the effects of the Physiomesh product. The suit is one of a growing number of claims against makers of pelvic mesh.

National Headquarters | Wayne Wright LLP | 5707 W Interstate 10 | San Antonio, TX 78201
Click here to unsubscribe